Bata eta besteak
Ni deuseztatzen naute.

Abestua:

Unanswered answers
Loves without lovers
Songs without melodies

There is no life without fight

People and lover
Lover and people
Look where they are

I have two strengths in me
I thought
One was destroying the other
But it's not like that
One and the other

Sung:

Singing in pain,
feeling in pain
repenting in pain
because of the pain made

To be free

NOTES ABOUT
THE LAST MOVEMENT:

Last movement of the piece it`s based in two melodies of Iparragirre, "Gernikako Arbola" (The tree of Gernika) and "Ara Nun Diran" (Looked where they are"), and one by Gorka Hermosa: Gernika, 26/4/1937.

"Ara Nun Diran" is a song written by Iparragirre when he returned to live to his Basque Country when he was so old after so many years living in America. When he arrived, he look to his country and say "look where they are": mountains, rivers, fields. This melody is used between measures 11 to 64.

Returning to "Gernikako Arbola" (The tree of Gernika): this song is the most known melody by Iparragirre. It was the hymn of the Basque Country for so many years and nowadays is a song that every Basque knows. The piece starts with this melody in measures 1,2,5,6, 28, 29 and 30. The Tree of Gernika is a sacred tree among the Basque people and it`s located in the town of Gernika. The legend said that the majors of the different old tribes of the Basques (before the Romans) went to this tree every time they must discuss important things.

So the song "Gernikako Arbola" is the most known Basque melody of the 19th century. In this same town, Gernika, took place in the 20th century the well known bombing of the Nazi side during the Spanish Civil War in 1937 and nearly all the city was destroyed, except the tree, who survived, like a miracle. Picasso painted days after this bombing his famous paint "Guernica". Gorka Hermosa wrote in 1994 one of his most famous pieces about this and in this "Urretxutik Mundura" Hermosa mix those two pieces: his "Gernika" and the "Gernikako Arbola" by Iparragirre from the measure 73 to the end of the piece. In the orchestral version they are 2 recitative parts written by the famous Basque poet Jon Maia about the Gernika of the 21th century as a metaphore of the future of Basque culture.
